

TRACY “TRACE” SARGENT

Real World. Real Solutions. Real Results.

Tracy “Trace” Sargent has over 26 years’ experience in Leadership / Management, Homeland Security, Law Enforcement, Investigations, Missing Persons Cases, Special Operations, Emergency Management, High-threat Risk Management, Catastrophic Disasters, Training, Public Relations / Media, and Public Health.

Encompassing over 12 years’ experience with Georgia’s Homeland Security, as a Program Director she developed and commanded the State’s first HSEEP Training and Exercises Program. She also developed and managed the State’s first K9 Special Operations Programs for USAR and for local response. She was a command unit member of the Nation’s first state-level body recovery team and worked within the State’s Terrorism Division, where she developed the State’s first Strategic Response Plan for Terrorism Preparedness.

As a certified Emergency Program Manager with over 22 years’ experience in emergency management, she has participated in numerous high-level special events, including the G8 Summit, Y2K, State Capitol Legislative Detail, Presidential Declarations, and Catastrophic Disasters.

With over 26 years’ experience in law enforcement/investigations, she has responded to over 1,500 missions in the search for and recovery of lost and missing persons. As a lead investigator and K9 handler, she has assisted agencies and families on local, state, national and international levels.

She deployed to the Middle East on multiple tours as part of a High-Level Threat Executive Protection Detail Team, successfully running red and green zone missions.

She is recognized as a subject matter expert and has been featured on national and local media. These include appearances on the Nancy Grace Show, Discovery ID, HLN, Disappeared, Oxygen, Crime Watch Daily, CNN, Inside Edition, 48 Hours Hard Evidence, Up and Vanished, World News Tonight, In Session, Fox 5, and Good Day Atlanta (partial list of appearances).

She has worked with a variety of businesses, including corporations, governmental agencies and the entertainment industry. With experience in over 300 projects, she has assisted ventures ranging from multi-million-dollar big budget projects to small independent endeavors.

Trace’s credentials include: Master’s Degree in Public Health with Associates in Law/Paralegal Program; Certified Law Enforcement Officer; World Protective Services Certified; Secret Security Clearance, Licensed Private Investigator, Certified Process Service, Post Certified Instructor, Master Trainer and Evaluator, K9 Handler and Trainer; Licensed EMT and Firefighter, Certified Emergency Program Manager and Structural Collapse Technician as well as over 300 additional training courses.

She has received numerous awards for her service and performance. These include Outstanding Innovative Adult Training Program Award Winner, Governor’s Public Safety Award Winner, Living Your Legacy Award Winner, Commendation Award for Citizen’s Merit Award for Excellent, Golden Rule Award Winner, John Herbert Phillips Award Winner and Georgia Animal Hall of Fame Winner.