

ROBERT L. BROWNING

Real World. Real Solutions. Real Results.

KEY QUALIFICATIONS

Executive-Level Police Commander with 30+ years' experience in both the public and private sector with key emphasis on law enforcement, emergency management (NIMS), SWAT operations, hostage negotiations, bomb technician, investigations, and large-scale events.

EDUCATION

University of Georgia B.A. Political Science

St. Leo University, Masters of Forensic Psychology

Law Enforcement Officer Certification, Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST)

Post Certified Instructor, Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training

Licensed Private Investigator, Georgia State Board of Private Investigators

TRAINING

Police Executive Research Forum SMIP Graduate

DEA Drug Unit Commanders Academy

FBI Hostage Negotiations School

FBI Redstone Arsenal Hazardous Device/Bomb School

SWAT School

National Incident Management System Training 100-700

GBI Disaster Recovery Training

Defensive Tactics Instructor

POST Certified Firearms Instructor

MEMBERSHIP (past/present)

IACP

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

30+ years in a major metropolitan police department retiring as the Major over the Special Operations Section; which handled Presidential details, critical incidents, and large-scale sporting and entertainment events. Also, commanded the Narcotics Division and Deputy Director of Federal Drug Task Force involving federal/state, and local agents in national and international drug investigations.